No more Scab in Sheep.

The undersigned an old sheep farmer in the south of this province after many years of study in the pernicious infirmity of the scab, has at last discovered an infallible remedy against a sickness that in the body where it generally breaks out like a storm resisting all the remedies that to this time have been discovered.

This specific so simple in its application as great it is result, is preferable to all invented until now, it is cheaper than tobacco, and free from poisonous substances contained in all other remedies before invented.

With only one arroba of my specific there is sufficient for the Scab of 800 or 1000 sheep, and at the low price of $ 160, I will facilitate all sheep farmers to cure their sheep in a perfect state of healthiness; to make known this remedy all indian farmers to prove it, I have determined to sell small packages of one $ at $8 which I hold at every one's disposition who wants to prove its infallibility.

Instructions for its application will be given in the deposit of specific against the sale.

THURSDAY, JUNE 4 1868

REVISTA DE B. AYRES.

We welcome most heartily this new magazine, which bids fair to win the very highest rank in Argentine periodical literature. It is the first of the kind we have seen in these countries, and will create and foster a more sober method of writing than that which hitherto been the great characteristic of our native colleagues. It will open a field for indigenous genius, which formerly "wasted its sweetness on the arid recesses of the Desert, or offended modesty in the shape of "blood secrets." Mr Lamartine can no longer upbraid "our absent friend," on the score of genuine Argentine literature, nor can M. Dumas rail at the unlimited extent of human folly, alluding to the empty magnitude of the "Tribune."

But let us not digress, in examining the 1st No. of this interesting serial. It is an ukey that so many Argentines of respectable acquirements should be so destitute as had either a want or fear there is more jealousy of their talents than their politics. The two names on the title-page, Navarro Viola and Quesada, are looked upon with respect by all who regard the "Tribuna" as Gospel and Varela as its prophet. We have been therefore glad to notice that party-spirit does not enter into a line of the "Revista." "Historical dates of the Port of Buenos Ayres," contributed by Snr. Trelles, commences with the first vessel cleared from our Custom house, A. D. 1580 for Spain, by the founder Juan Garay with news of the new colony, and the first ship arrived from the mother country for Buenos Ayres A. D. 1581. It narrates the expedition of Philip the II. to colonize the Magellan territory, the murder of Juan Garay by the Indians and the growing importance of Buenos Ayres at the close of the 16th century. The discovery of a fossil megatherium included the Spanish Court to apply for a live, or stuffed, specimen; while many restrictions were placed on commerce and the importation of African Slaves commenced. The chapter concludes A. D. 1600.

General Iriarte gives fragments of Belgrano's life, which throw additional light on the Argentine hero, whose tasteful offices to our country's President. Some anecdotes of his civic and military virtues are recounted by the writer who accompanied him in the campaign of 1818.

Sr. Martin de Moussy, whose work is a text-book on the Republic, sends an agreeable paper on Life in the Andes, with scientific notes.

Dr. N. Viola's monthly chronicle of great events, Argentine history is already favorably known, and comes very "apropos" to occupy a chapter in this monthly review. Dr. Quesada's nouvelle "Sur from Home" dedicated to Mrs. Gorriti is written in an easy current style, and prefaces a story by that lady "Hope not for good, if you do ill."

D. Carlos Guido's verses on Immortality are beside our criticism, as we limit ourselves to prose. D. Simon Lamacho has an article on "Albums" replete with sound reflections. "Una vez y Siempre," is a tale of the Peruvian viceroyalty, by Snr. Rivarola, which we have not yet perused. Studies on the Federal Jurisdiction, by Dr. Marcelino Ugarte, is a subject of the hour which should occupy the minds of our legislature. The volume concludes with an apology by Dr. Quesada, History of Paraguay and Ulate by Padre Guarara, reviewed by D. Estrada, Argentine Literature in Germany, and a review of now works published in the city.

The above will give our readers a fair idea of the contents of this unique work, in which we have not found a single fault. It should get up, in 12 years, price $30, and it will be a lost to Argentine literature as well as a disgrace to the Press, unless "Revista de Buenos" do not become the most popular publication of the R. Plate.

IRELAND.

Not long since we had a letter from Major Rickard of the S. Juan Mining Co., after his visit to Dublin, in which he described in the most pathetic and sensible since he left his native country in 1850. Every packet brings more intelligence than in preference, and the condition of Ireland at present can only be appreciated by reading a "leader" in the Morning Star of April 22nd in which the writer (an Englishman) represents the immense loss to the British Empire entailed by the wholesale ruin of that island, from the festive legislation. As no protection is held out to the improving agriculturist, the crops, in 5 years, have diminished in the same ratio, the cattle have fallen off in equal ratio, and the flax-trade of the North barely shows vitality. As a natural consequence, the people are flying from the country in millions, and while the plague, numbers of the poor are starving, a few exist on American beef or Indian corn, being forced to export their native produce, and discontent and agrarian outrage prevail.

The American agents are enlisting widely for the Federal army in all parts: a band of 600 volunteers were embarked at Kingstown, ostensibly for the construction of a railway at China go, but in reality to swell the ranks of the Northern army—this evasion being now the routinely sacrificed on the heights of Fredericksburg.

From Kerry all the emigrants are able-bodied men, and the number departing from that one county far exceeded the gross return of 2 years before. Cork has sent another detachment, of 120 settlers, to Queensland, and there already is a famous fox-cotton-growing and likely to become an Irish colony. In Limerick the ordinary traffic is suspended whenever the vessels the crowds of persons on route for the U. States, which, notwithstanding the war, is still the refuge of the Celtic races.

Meantime the Irish people cannot be wholly eradicted or exiled. In the midst of these afflicting times, the spirit of nationality survives: the new Catholic University has been sanctioned at Dublin, and will not be surpassed by any similar structure in Europe, the plans setting down the outlay at £200, 000 for the buildings alone, and a bequest to the institution, at present working in Stephen's Green: the Galway Packet which we regret to see unfortunate, as one of the steamers has been condemned, as a piece to refuse the subsidy. In a like spirit, a committee of the Dublin Corporation has memorialized the immediate suppression of the Royal Irish Academy and of the Hibernian Institution, the former being one of the most respectable institutions in the Empire. Some changes have taken place in the Dublin Press, owing to a misunderstanding with the Government for the Prince Wales' marriage: Dr. Holland has retired from the "Irishman" a paper of his own foundation, and Mr Pigott from the "Irish People and Irish News." Sympathy for Poland is universal. Secret societies are said to be more than increase, notwithstanding the efforts of the clergy.

An agitation for tenant-right has been vigorously set on foot in the Co. Meath, and meetings have been held. A protestant divine of much respectability presided at the last, supported on board from the English packet at Kingstown. Dillane was hanged at Limerick for the murder of Sheehan, and under Mr. Francis Fitzgerald he had borne a highly virtuous character to the age of 63 years, and was fondled by the children of his landlord: who doubled his rent, after laying out £1500 on improving the farm: popular feeling was in favor of the victim. The Fenian question, by a protestant. The article on Ireland's condition, worth reading a truthful exposition of the Fenian question, by a Protestant. The exposition is clumsy, and contains some reforms are necessary, admits that one-half the Roman are hostile to the Irish Government, but insists the Established City is pleasing to the Catholic Europe, and cannot be delivered over to any power, reducing the Sovereign Pontiff to vassalage.

A land agent named Grierson who had evicted some hundreds on the Adair estate, and been twice convicted of firing at his neighbours, was assassinated by two countrymen who fancied the murder was the Evil spirit, killed her, in a fit there two events are classed in the English papers as blood thirsty murders!

St Patrick's Day was celebrated with great rejoicing in Ireland. In New York, Archbishop Hughes sang a grand High Mass, after which there was a triumphal procession through Broadway. A steel-plated frigate, called the "Shamrock" in honor of the Irish brigade, was launched; and several banquets and speeches concluded the day.

The following extracts from an English paper will serve to show the "feeling" in Ireland:—

Lord Carlisle had opportunity, last evening, of addressing the Dublin Society of the Cattle Show, of referring to the frightful drain of the population, as the official returns of the emigration for last quarter from the single port of Liverpool, shows an increase of 17,826 persons, chiefly Irish, above the number for the corresponding quarter of last year. This is exclusive of the vast amount of emigration direct from Irish ports, and the following extracts from the local journals of Sligo, Dundalk and Tralee, all minor ports, will show you the profound impression which this unprecedented exodus is making on the minds of the country:—

The exodus has commenced in earnest in the west of Ireland. From an early hour on Friday morning a large number of men, women, and children arrived in this town, from the neighbouring counties of Leitrim, Roscommon, and Mayo, "en route" for America. The men were generally fine muscular fellows in the prime of life, the majority of whom seemed to have belonged to the small farming classes.

The emigration from Dundalk is astonishing. Independently of the upwards of 600 of both sexes left last week by the steamers for Liverpool, and this week the number who sailed could not be less than 1500. At present only a few of them proceed to America, the greater number being resolved to try their fortunes in Australia and Queensland.

Almost 200 emigrants left Tralee and Killarney this week for Australia and America. From Thurles station to that of Mallow, upwards of 1,000 persons are "black" with emigrants on Wednesday last. Were the American war over, the numbers, we fear, would be enormous.

Her Majesty has for many years libe rally patronised Balbriggan hosiery which is one glory of the Irish Sea, and Highness the Princess of Wales, struck by the beauty of their fabric, has transmitted an order for a quantity of Balbriggan articles to Mrs. Smith and Co. Abbey-street. The coronet and initials are to be worked into the material. This is the first order given personally by Her Majesty for Irish manufacture since her marriage but we are assureable intends to encourage our native industry By every means in her power.

WILLIAM LEES' BENEFIT.

On Tuesday night, the elite of B Ayres assembled at the Colon, it being the benefit night of the great Zampillarcostation feat of Wm. Lees. Every seat, every box, every inch of standing room was engaged. The fair Portenas mustered strong on the occasion, Mr Lees being evidently a favorite.

The night's performance began with the popular Spanish comedy, "Lo Inadvertido" which was received with laughter. At the conclusion of the first act, the Lees Brothers made their appearance, amidst tremendous cheering.

The zampillarcostation feat was better than ever, turning three consecutive somersets while flying across the stage, and bounding from the top gallery to the stage.

At the conclusion of this marvellous feat, throwing a back somersett, on horse back across the platform The cheering, waving of handkerchiefs, and clapping of hands was terrific. Bouquets were thrown from the boxes and pit to the boxes; no less than three came from the President's box. Never before was there seen such a demonstration in B Ayres.

William Lees has reason to be proud of his reception in this city; for three months he and his brothers have been playing to crowded houses. Such a thing was never known before in Buenos Aires; not even the opera company could secure such houses.

"Los Hombres del Aire" concluded the night's amusement. The acting of the Brothers, as well as the singing, the extraordinary and dangerous leaps etc, where the slightest accident could only result in immediate death, were loudly applauded. Many hats were shrieked, and one fairly fainted off.

SAN JUAN BAUTISTA.

Mr Charles Dyson, at present engaged on board the above vessel, presented himself yesterday at our office, to clear up the mystery reported of her proceedings. He states that no arms of any kind were landed in B. Oriental, for the simple reason that there never has been any armament on board, except 8 or 10 old muskets, 3 boxes musline cuts and 3 obsolete guns. On one occasion, numbering 19, is wholly made up of Englishmen and Germans, except the pilot, who is an Italian, and all are indignant at the falsehoods published by the Reform of Montevideo. The object is purely scientific, as they have already practised several submarine blastings, and are procuring new implements, to continue the works. The commander of the Villa Salto is aware of this, having been on board the vessel.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The members of Congress seem to while away the time to very little advantage to the nation. Several very important measures are waiting, but the impatient tramway and railcers are complaining. We hope that before anything else is gone into, the Argentine debt question will be taken in hand, and by paying from the "Guerra y Salto plasters" is inexcusable. Remembering but not at once done about them, the Brazilian war will be over, and more visitors than the great Barnum; as there is a disposition on the part of the holders to make his Excellency's acquaintance, and lay their powerful shoes, in propria persona, before him. The National Government remitted four millions to the Bank, for burning purposes, before the end of 1867 Minister to have asked the loan of this sum for a few months, to pay these unfortunate parties who put faith in the honour and credit of the country. Only yesterday we met the Finance Minister in calle Victoria, looking all smiles and happiness, congratulating a number of admiring friends on the new houses building and the big letters over the Tribuna office. We wonder if he ever strolls down calle Cangallo, opposite to Senador Elizalde's letters on the front of our house. If he does, he will remember our opposition to his scheme of shaving of the interest on the Debt, and paying these Treasury bills in 20 years bouds.

Until these Treasury notes are paid, we shall be unceasing in our opposition, and beg that Congress will not talk of new railways, free banks, river navigation, etc, until the lateral debts of the country are paid, and a disgraceful damning becomes unnecessary.

Mr Seymour, the indefatigable collector for the British Hospital, has kindly forwarded a list of subscriptions for publication, which we will insert on Saturday. He requests us to state that, on the 3rd inst. the Hospital had 21 patients in the institution, of whom 19 were Irish, and were non-paying

We learn that 300 emigrant families left Europe for the province of Santa Fe, brought through the exertions of Sr. Cullen.

The "Nacional" published Mr. Peterson's statement of the Urquiza Swindle. Our views of the case are already before the public. We think it a fit case for a Libel Suit, and will offer a square league of land in the Partido of Luzan. This year the price has gone up to 2 dollars per acre, as Argentines but Irishmen, who are running the prices up. In Santa Fe or Entre Rios, provinces equally adapted for the above mentioned purpose, the territory can be purchased for the price of a league here. It is therefore a matter of only 3 or 4 months of extravagantly high prices for the sake of a more local prejudice.

Gen. Bartolome was glad to see Latin turning over a new leaf: the abolition of the Patent office, public works, and transferring its duties to the Topographical department, and the saving in economy: first, because the clerks in the first office have nothing to do; and secondly, the Topographical office is in want of only 1 or 2 assistants for the business owing to the high price Government has put on public lands. We hope to see a spirit of economy growing up, and hope Mr Minister Dominguez, will soon be able to lighten the local taxes in Barracas on saladero products.

Our big colleague the "Tribuna," thinks that congress acted very wisely in increasing the duties 25 p. c. We are surprised if it took any other view of the case while some of the editors are pals to employees.

In the Financial Chambers on Tuesday night, the resignation of the Fiscal on account of domestic affliction, was read and rejected: The proposed new Tariff was read, the competition for Southern railway, was read and passed.

In Congress there was little to amuse us, the Senators having voted unanimously in favor of increasing the pub lic salaries 25 p. c in paper.

The French Consul for Uruguay, M. M. Lauriant Cochelet arrived per Saintonge.

The "Mosquito," a comic paper which appears every Saturday, has now over 600 subscribers: this week it has all the journalists represented paying homage to the Bros. Lees. Next week our readers may look out for a caricature of President Mitre: the reading matter however, is very stale, and lacks both wit and talent, the drawings are tolerable.

We salute our jocose colleague, and pray that the editors whose hard up for fame, will pay a visit to our office where here is always a hearty treat on hand.

The Columbus has arrived with new type on board for the Standard.

A res dent of San Fernando states that about 20 yo ra ago large fields of cotton were grown in that locality, and that cotton grew beautifully about there at that period, of civil wars &c the branch of agriculture was neglected this year however over one hundred square will be planted along the river

We have received a communication from Mr. Woodgate (H. A. Green and Co.) contradicting a paragraph in yesterday's number, in which we alluded to the expression of thanks conveyed us on the part of Mess. Wright and Kelso. As we have not the pleasure of knowing these gentlemen, any more than that a mutual friend begged us to recommend Mr. Lloyd (of Wright and Kelso) as vice consul for Liverpool, which we did successfully we are at loss to know for what we have given offence, further than the manner in which Mr. Woodgate was bearer, if not for the service specified. Mess. Wright and Kelso, Mr. W. says, have declared their wish to advertise in our columns, but for this no "thanks" are necessary. The incident is trifling, but certainly amusing.

FRANCE.

La Presse of this evening asserts that according to news received from Mexico, General Bazaine had occupied Cholula on the 3rd ult., in order to intercept the retreat of the Mexican army from Puebla. The siege of Puebla was to commence upon the 10th ult. The Patrie says—"It is reported that the government claims to be able to withdraw still further a large part of the first fortnight of June."

Paris, April 7th.

Admiral Jurien de la Graviere has been recalled from Mexico. The reason for his recall is, that the importance of the French naval forces on the Mexican coast is no longer such as to warrant the presence of an officer of the rank.

A letter from Toulon, dated on the 6ed of April, as published by the Monday, says—"This morning, at eight o'clock, all the men-of-war in the roadstead in the port placed their yardarms crosswise, and their flags half masts high, as a sign of mourning on board each vessel. At the same time the same time the roadstead began to fire a gun every quarter of an hour until sunset, and the manifestation will last until to-morrow, at eleven o'clock in the morning, when the churches bells ring out again, at which time a last salute of twenty one guns will be fired."

The Pope has publicly announced Mgr. Dupanloup, the celebrated Bishop of Orleans, has likely seat to Rome in the sum of 40,000 francs for the St. Peter's Pence.

The Monde of the 8th inst. announces that a subscription has been set on foot in favour of the widow of Lamartine's parish priest of Aix. The French Minister of State, at the request of the Mayor of that town, has granted a block of marble for the purpose. The venerable pastor will be represented kneeling, with his hands joined and his head bent on the shoulder. He will be clothed the usual in surplice and pastoral stole. The introduction of his Beatification cause imposes a certain reserve on the part of the Holy See towards the Church in France.

The Moniteur publishes an official note announcing that a general meeting of the Bishops of the ecclesiastical province of Paris will be held on the 14th inst. at the residence of the Archbishop of Paris, to consider the question of the Beatification of the Venerable Jean Eudes, founder of the Congregation of Jesus and Mary.

The Paris correspondent of the Daily News says:—"The Emperor has received a letter from Mr. Woodgate (H. A. Green and Co.) contradicting a paragraph in yesterday's number, in which we alluded to the expression of thanks conveyed us on the part of Mess. Wright and Kelso. As we have not the pleasure of knowing these gentlemen, any more than that a mutual friend begged us to recommend Mr. Lloyd (of Wright and Kelso) as vice consul for Liverpool, which we did successfully we are at loss to know for what we have given offence, further than the manner in which Mr. Woodgate was bearer, if not for the service specified. Mess. Wright and Kelso, Mr. W. says, have declared their wish to advertise in our columns, but for this no "thanks" are necessary. The incident is trifling, but certainly amusing.

CONGRESS-DEPUTIES.

Forty members attended at yesterday's session, and two new Deputies, D. Eugenio Martinez and D. Quintana presented their diplomas, for the provinces of San Juan and Jujuy: after a formal consultation, they were admitted and took the oath.

The Secretary read a note from the Senate, communicating an amendment made in the law of 25 p$ increase of salaries. The military officers were rejected on two petitions for pension: the first by Don M. Jordan, (mother of the deceased) who sought the benefit setting forth that her deceased husband had fought against the English in 18 07, been present at Maypu, and suffered for the Americas cause in La Plata.

The committee omitted that he had rendered no se vice since 1822, and been rewarded in 1827 for all previous services and consequently could claim a donation of 100 silver dollars.

Being voted on general reading, it resulted.

Ayes 21—Noes 17.

On 2nd reading M. M. Moreno and Zuviria opposed.

D. A. Alsina said there was nothing unworthy in giving a pension. M. Ocampo and P. Obligado begged the city of the Chamber for a man of 96 years, whose story was better proved than the wi dow Jordan's statement.

The vote was put — Ayes 24—Noes 18.

On the order of the day being carried, the Chamber rose.

LOCAL EVENTS.

COTTON.—An Irishman, for many years resident in Georgia, has recently arrived in Buenos Ayres to treat with the natives cotton-growing.

CORPUS CHRISTI.—To-day will be a strict holiday, with grand function and procession at the Cathedral.

THE SAN JUAN BAUTISTA—For the last few days a Mr. Dixon awaiting the hydraulic machine from Montevideo to raise the iron vessel lost three last year, and purchased by Mr. Thomas Mason & Co. The machine that not arrived, but parties are entertained that Mr. Stoney, embarqué with the affair, will be aboard by next steamer, and whose name we forget, one of the finest that ever entered the Plate.

CHARITABLE DONATION.

British Consulate, May 1868.

My dear Sir—I beg to acknowledge with many thanks the handsome donation of $2000 which you were pleased to name to me on the Prince of Wales Railway for the Benefit of the British Hospital. while thanking you for the interest you have thus shown the institution, I venture to hope that the committee may look forward to a continuation of your support whenever it may be in your power to assist them.

Believe me &c.

F. Parish,

H. Zimmermann Esq.

IMPORTANT.—The two Uruguay steamers are beyond their time, and the town is rife with surmises as to the cause of the delay. It is said, that the Esmeralda is aground, and that the Salto is short of coal.

Oh 'Change.

June 3rd.

Athel'rast 11 o'clock business commenced the first sale of ounces was 4 reals in advance yesterday, price 446 1/2 they continued at this figure until about 1 o'clock when they stepped up to 47 buyers came in fast and at 2 o'clock they closed at 447 1/2 firm.

It is perfectly idle to conceal the fact that gold is in demand, and without wishing to influence the market either way, we feel it our duty to say that there are more buyers than sellers.

The sales for cash amounted to 2984.

For Friday 100 at 446 1/2, for Saturday 50 at 445, for do 250 at 446, for June 30th 250 at 448 1/2, for do 100 at 448, for do 250 at 447 1/2, for do 100 at 447, for do 250 at 448 1/2, for do 200 at 445, for June 13th 150 at 446, for do 27th 300 at 444 1/2, for July 15th 500 at 442, for June 30th buyers 700 at 442 1/2, for July 31st 250 at 441.

The sales at the Plazas and on the Boles were as follows.

600 arrobas wool at 94, 700 do at 93, 600 do at 87; 150 do at 82. 300 cases hides at 107, 5000 salted do hides at 16 3/4d., 100 piper tallow at 13 1/2 rls, 60 dozen sheepskins at 320.

About 20 carts with wool came to the South plazas, and a troupe of 15 is expected to-morrow.

In the North plaza the brokers are in spirits with wheat and maiz than wool or hides.

A cartoin well known wool sold last Nov. at 114, has been sold in Antwerp at 2 fls 30 cents, leaving a loss to the exporter of 40 cents.

It is worthy of remark that on the eve of burning four millions of impressions instead of going down, they are steadily rising. Much anxiety is expressed as to the rate of exchange for the coming packet some small transactions have taken place below the last rate.

It is asserted that if the rate of exchange falls much remittances will be made in specie

The custom house rate for ounces, for the month of June is 439 m.c.

We hear of a sale of 2000 head of horned cattle in the south, at 75 dols. cash, which is equal to about 50. two years ago, when ounces were at 240. The sudden fall in the price of cattle is alarming. Cows are to-day hardly worth the trouble of minding, owing to the high price of land and wages. We hear of no exercises in the South who has a fine tame rodeo of cattle for sale, and although 60 was asked, no buyers could be found. We hear of another sale of stamp in the north; the purchaser is an Irish sheep-farmer, well known to our business reader. The price paid is at the rate of one million per league.

The arrivals from the camp are very trifling. In the Plaza Once September, within the last two days about 1500 arrobas of wool, 600 cow hides, 1400 dozen sheepskins, 800 fgs of maize. A good deal of wheat is coming in, both by the train and by the carts: close on 1500 sacks of wheat were delivered at the station on Monday and Tuesday, and about 900 fanegas on the same days by the carts.

In the South Plaza there is more wool and hides coming in and less cereals. 2000 dry hides have arrived since the beginning of the week; 200 dozen sheepskins and about 800 arrobas of wool the amount of horse-hair coming at market is very limited.

Monday was a busy day at the Boca. 2000 dry hides, 1800 salt do, 50 pipes of tallow, 95 bales of tobacco 44 bales of wool, 6000 sheepskins, 600 fanegas of lime, and any quantity of potatoes, beans and jerk.

It is well that our ship brokers should remember that a good deal depends upon the arrivals constantly, in the way of getting cargo for foreign vessels, as the stock of produce on hand in Buenos Aires is extremely limited.
